DEDICATION

The class of 1987 dedicates this book to Mr. Jerome Kreitzer for his great commitment to the students of Rutland High School. Mr. Kreitzer has been a teacher at Rutland High School for the past ten years. During this time, he has been instrumental in establishing Peer-to-Peer, SADD, and getting students involved in the community. Not only does he give confidence and encouragement to the students in school, but he also is very active in the community. Currently Mr. Kreitzer is involved in both the Diversion Program and the Green Mountain Training Institute. The class wishes to thank Mr. Kreitzer for his hard work and dedication.

SENIORS

Rutland High School Class OF 1987

Liz Kelly, Secretary; Amy Fenn, Treasurer; Dave Merrifield, Vice-President; Bill Perry, President

To all the seniors;

We have now accomplished our first goal. We are graduating seniors prepared to go on with our lives and education. It has been fun having all of you as classmates. I hope everybody succeeds in life and accomplishes what he or she desires. We have worked together as a class to strengthen not only Rutland High School, but also the surrounding community. We thank the faculty and administration for all the support they gave us through the years.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

I, SCOTT ADAMS, leave paint for a three point range so that Mike Lozier will have a reason to shoot from 20 feet.
I, SHERRY AINES, leave RHS with great pleasure and hope Jenny, my sister, will enjoy it more than I have, and my grades to Lisa Chioffi.
I, KAARIN ALSOP, leave my spare mirror and weak excuses to Nancy Miller and my few remaining brain cells to "Kitty" Kasey Wood.
I, STEVE BAKER, leave Jason Washburn and Dave DelBianco all of my old tee shirts so they can have head bands during soccer practice.
I, RENEE BARRETT, leave my brother, Greg, with the midnight missions; leave Erick Eaton the ability to party; and leave with Katie Mosher and Julie Grimley to Penn.
I, CATHI BARTENSTEIN, leave the passenger side front seat of the Monkee mobile to Amy Mackin and Michele Clifford so that they may forever fight over it; also leaving my driving ability and Rte 4 West to my big little brother Mark Mossey, and our birthday in hopes that he'll use it wisely; to Rusty Crossman his favorite 20 measures of Festivo.
I, DEANNA BASHAW, leave my ability to fall up the stairs to anyone who can do it as gracefully as I can, and to Mike all my gum chewing.
I, MIKE BELOCK, leave Rutland High School above the clouds.
I, KEVIN BELLOMO, leave my coaching ability to Dan Wolins plus my defensive effort to Brad LaFaso and Mike Lozier.
I, ANDREA BIOTY, leave my unbelievable times to everybody behind me.
I, MARY ELIZABETH BOGDANOVITCH, being of sound mind (Surprise! Fooled you all, didn't I?) leave my parking space to Abby Timbers if she ever learns how to drive (good luck Ab) and the theater and the lights to anyone who thinks they can fill my footsteps.
I, TERI BRADLEY, leave all of my road maps of New Hampshire and my sense of direction and especially Cleo's teeth to Luran Moyer. Also all of my Love to Rob.
I, CURT BRATLAND, leave my advice to the entire school to stop eating the school lunch before its too late! (the Surgeon general has proven it hazardous to your health.)
I, DOUG BREWER, leave my third base skills to Tim Pockette and my cans to Todd Hotchkiss.
I, SCOTT BRILEYA, leave my TOYOTA to Todd Hotchkiss because God knows, the Scamp has to retire.
I, CARRIE BURKE, leave my home to any underclassman who feels they can carry on the art of partying as well as we did and to Andrea Hathaway I leave my ability to smile her way out of any situation.
I, ERIC BURGESS, leave the freshman girls and a pair of Jeans to Don Wolins, and to Pistol Pete the ability to "lighten up."
I, TAMMY CABEZOLA, leave my ability to stay in school to my sister, Jennifer.
I, DEBBIE CALLAHAN, leave the family car to my sister, Kelly, with hopes that it will live to see a few more good years.
I, LORI CAMERON, leave Jamel Home all the cement she wishes to stick her feet in.
I, SHERRY CARLSON, leave to Curtis King my brains in 20th Century seeing as how he might need it someday.
I, QINA CARMOLLI, hereby leave to any trackster my philosophy: start out slowly, and ease off; and to Greg, my darling, I leave a straight jacket in hopes that he will not brutalize any others.
I, MARGARET CARROLL, gladly leave my irresistible luck with cars to anyone who wants it and Encore Theatre to Ginny and Christine- good luck with it!
I, RENEE CHABOT, leave Holly Moriglioni my cheering shakers and all the headaches that go along with them.
I, NORA CHAMPINE, leave my ability to munch during 1st period band without getting caught to Diane Grant and Wendy Williamson, Best of Luck.
I, ROCKY CHAMPINE, leave my laugh and sense of humor to Erick Eaton and my friendship with Ms. Trainor to any of next year's Calculus cherubs.
I, DAVID CHASE, leave the Bakers Bin at Terill Street to Jodie Werner.
I, DARLENE COLOMB, To Lisa Mazz I leave the "Great" high school life.
I, RONALD COLOMB, leave Mr. Whalen with peace and mind, and my trouble making ability to Paul English and Trip Tucker.
I, TRACY COOK, leave my ability to get my own way to all the upcoming seniors, my advice to Val Doucette, and my awesome punches to Becky Martel.
I, MARGARET COPPINGER, leave Marya Carmoli my patience for singing boring alto harmony, and Dionne Poplawski my ability to step on field hockey balls repeatedly.
I, JACKIE COSTELLO, leave Becky Martel my 33 skirts, and to Kandi Noble, or anyone else with as many excuses, my permit in hopes of them having as much fun on the first day with it as I did.
I, JON COVELL, leave Art Stevens my car so he will never have to bum a ride again.
I, SUSAN CROSSMAN, leave my smile and ability to laugh at anything to Foster P. and Jodie Y. I also leave my studying habits to my brother, John, who will need them to get through high school, Good Luck!
I, SEAN CYR, leave Mon francais y mi espanol aux gens qui les utilisent.
I, BILL DAVIS, leave all my luck to the underclassmen, for they will need it.
I, DON DAWICKI, will leave my Guinea Hat to Chris Merkle.
I, CHERIE DELORIA, leave hoping that no one goes through all the trouble I went through in Mr. Pop's class, but they'll go through all the fun times finding someone to love, like Brian Fales.
I, PATTY DELPHA, leave my ability to have a good time to Karen Wood.
I, JOHN DESAUTELS, leave all my partying skills to the whole junior class.
I, SUZANNE DICK, leave Shannon Lancour my dissecting ability and all the surgical gloves she wants for any future dissections and I leave my car keys to my brother Andy.
I, SUSAN DORMAN, leave behind the only right-handed batting glove to Sharon Czech and Joe- Good Luck in the following years.
I, LISA A. DOUCETTE, leave all my "innocence" to my sister Valerie.
I, DOUG DRAKE, leave all my brains and body to science and my motorcycle to Rosenburger.
I, LORI DRINWATER, leave with Joe forever
I, MICHELLE DuBRAY, leave to Gwen the patience and luck needed to get through high school, and my friendship, to my sister, Brandy, I leave a two year supply of late passes.
I, JULIE EDMUNDS, leave all my classes, homework, exams, parties, car accidents, and trouble to Erika.
I, DANA ELKEY, leave my locker and everything in it to Russel Jones.
I, DEBBIE ELLISON, leave Mr. Kreitzer many more years of teaching.
I, SUSAN FAVOR, leave all my bonus questions to Staci Barnts, counting rests to Tori Oakman and Cindy Hemenway and to my brother, Norman, my cousin, Foster, and to all the rest of my friends, the best of luck.
I, AMY FENN, leave Mary Mello my contact lenses and a sunny day in January, because we all know that's the reason we're so dizzy.
I, SHAWN FOLEY, leave peace and prosperity to anyone who thinks it will work.

I, DARREN FOSTER, leave Penny Inglee all the extra bears and roses, and to Carol Stratton, I leave all the trumpet skills I can give.
I, TRACEY FOWLER, willingly leave Rutland High doors, never to return.
I, JENNIFER FRICKE, leave my accounting seat to any fool who will take it and to Alison Lipes my ability to deal with frustrations.
I, MARY GALLIPO, leave this place and the teachers gladly, I also leave my giggling habits to Tina Fitzgerald.
I, PAIGE GOLDHAMMER, leave Dianne Grant all the "two's" she can handle.
I, SHAUNA GRAHAM, leave my absent slips to my brother Frank, in hopes that he'll attend school more than I did.
I, JENNIE GRANT, leave all my good times at RHS to my brother Sean, and sister Melissa. and I leave my extra 50 pounds to anyone who wants it.
I, SUZANNE GRAVES, bequeath the dent in the choir room door to the Junior High.
I, JULIE GRIMLEY, leave the legend of bellow to Katie Mosher and (Becky) Martel, in hopes that they'll keep up the tradition.
I, MISSY HATCH, leave my Spanish ability to Amy Mazz for her atrocious accent needs some work, and my partying to Mark Russell with hopes he will have as much fun as I did.
I, VIKKI HAYES, leave my craziness of the Chuck Wagon to Megan Moerdyk.
I, PHILIP HINCKLEY, leave my ability to make up excuses for not doing my homework to anyone who wants them.
I, BRIAN "CORNEILIUS" HOGAN, leave my before practice sessions to Jason Washburnt.
I, STEVEN HUESTIS, in sound mind leave all my Kodiac can's to whom ever wants them.
I, JAMES HYSELL, leave my partying ability to all the teachers because when our class graduates, they'll want it.
I, JOE HYSELL, leave my visene to Lora Lee and my driving skills to Scott Smith.
I, SHANNON INGLEE, leave my piccdo to Tori Oakman so she can learn to play, the first chair to Wendy Williamson, all my extra Teddy's and Roses from FoFo to my sister Penny, and all of the Doors albums in the world to Liplock and Jude.
I, MATTHIAS JACOB, leave to Bob Smith at least 3 touchdowns at the next Rutland-MSJ football game.
I, CHRIS JEFFO, leave all my good times at RHS to my daughter Megan Marie Wilkinson.
I, MICHELE JEFFO, leave the song to my cousin Carrieann Gutwiller, and I leave my tardiness to my neice Meagan.
I, NEIL JENSEN, leave to Terry Dodge "Todd", "Chip" Maxfield yet another nickname: "Buddy."
I, CHRIS JOHNSON, leave to Mike Higgins the Maiden Mobile, to Gorky my Led Zepplin collection and to Allison all my Iron Madien possessions.
I, JERRY JOHINEN, leave all of my love and wordly possessions to Laura.
I, BRIAN KEEFE, leave all the madness to the Momma's boy because he needs all the help he can get.
I, CHRIS JUIFFRE, leave all of my hards times to Russ Co.
I, KELLY KEEFE, leave my bad habits and unforgettable times to Jody Sab in hopes that he has as much fun as I did.
I, MARSHA KELLOGG, will to Mary Mello a two-by-four field hockey stick, to Chris Durfee my brain, and to Val Doucette the power to carry on the ledgend of the Skoalketeers.
I, ELIZABETH KELLY, leave to Elizabeth Clark just what she (and the Marines) are looking for a few good men.
I, CRISSY KENT, leave my love for "her" to Boo Bourque and all my wallets to Pat Drugan.
I, CELESTE KETCHIN, leave all of the hours of track practice, not being nice and pillow duty to Dan Gedney.
I, CHRIS B. KUENE, being of sound mind and body leave my lacrosse skills to Rob Clough, Eric Alsop and the Moscatello brothers.
I, DOREEN KING, leave Dale Scott, my little brother, all of my hard times with teachers.
I, COLLEEN KOLLMER, leave my combination lock to Mrs. P.
I, DON LAGRO, leave my car to anybody who would accept the lowest amount; and I leave my grades to my sister, in hopes she will graduate.
I, WIL LANFEAR, leave all my knowledge and talents to my younger brother.
I, AMY LALTRELL, leave Joe Jackson my heart and all my Rutland High School Books.
I, KIM LAWERENCE, leave willingly and joyfully with good memories.
I, JANIPHER ANNE LITTLE, do hereby bequeath my number 6 position in the graduating class to Andrea Hathaway, to Abby Timbers I leave the blue skirt that she admires, and to Laurie Little I leave my acceptance to UVM.
I, ERICA LORMON, leave CP my total innocence for he has none, and to Jennifer Briggs I leave all my good times.
I, TOM LOYZELLE, will my ability to talk normal to Tim Pockett because he never learned.
I, CATHY MACQUATTIE, leave "the power" of capt. to Holly and Shannon; WALDO to Dianne; CAT 1 to Gurt; a 34 sweater to Geran; and to Bradley I leave nothing-I'm taking you with me!
I, LYNN MAINOLFI, leave Rutland High with Jim Keyes. To my sister, I leave all the fun times still to come.
I, JOHN MALOSKY, leave the memories of the van to the class of "87". (If they were able to remember). I leave my ability to play guitar to Jody Warner; my plantation to Leroy Lapree and John Gracey for they have the buds for it.
I, CHERIE MANGAN, leave Pam Desablin my ability to get with under class girls and our love for Dave and Brett.
I, TOM MANSEAU, leave my extra buds to my brother, Jimmy, and my can of Skoal to Kim Willis.
I, CHRIS MARTIN, leave my music to Sue Parker in hopes that no one else has to suffer thru her tapes again. I leave my patience to put up with sophomores to Curt King, and my break dancing ability to Jill St. Peter.
I, BOB MARTEL, leave my Grandmother's blue Plymouth Volare to Todd Hotchkiss because I don't think the Scamp will make it another week.
I, CHERIE McCULLOUGH, leave a Gill's grinder and my music ability to Mark Mossey and my seat in Vocabulary Workshop to anyone desperate to make the grade on the SAT's, and I leave Pam Sears gratefully and alone.
I, CHRIS McPHEE, leave my driving record to anyone who can drive worse.
I, JO-ANN MELVIN, leave Rutland with Guy Babb forever, to the Class of 88, I leave Mr. Pop and to Robin my perch in the bathroom.
I, BRAD MENDENHALL, leave my ability to collect and copy computer games to Jim Weeler because he knows the best use of a computer.
